The following members agreed to be on the Soup Luncheon Committee: Mr. White, Mr. Lee, Ms. Johnson, Mr. Wynn.

STATUS: OPEN

- Ms. Williams was asked by SGM Bonnie Schott of the SGM Association if the WOA would be interested in joining the rotation to provide a free breakfast (which includes buying the food, and preparing and serving the food) for JFHQ Employees next quarter. The SGM Association hosted the event last quarter, and would like others to pitch in for other upcoming quarters. The WOA will be busy in February with the soup luncheon, which is a fundraiser for the WOA. This item is tabled for later discussion.

9. NEW BUSINESS:

- Mr. Peters asked for ideas for the raffle to be held during the Officer Recognition activities 25-26 March 2011. Some members felt the print that was raffled last year went over well. Mr Peters asked members to email him any other ideas. We would like to keep the cost around $100-$150, so that way we clear more money for our fund.

STATUS: OPEN

- Mr. Peters mentioned Mr. Wynn will be retiring in the March/April timeframe. Mr. Wynn was not able to attend today's meeting. Mr. Wynn is working on a possible WO symposium to be held in March 2011 before he leaves.

- Mr. Peters announced that Mr. Jeff Craven is the new commandant for the WOC School at the RTI. Members congratulated Mr. Craven on his new appointment.

STATUS: CLOSED

- Mr. Peters reminded us that we need to vote for a new President during the March meeting at the Icebreaker on Friday evening, 25 March. The President's term was filling in when Mr. Cleven was reassigned to Germany. If anyone wants to run for president, submit your name so it can be placed on the ballot.

STATUS: OPEN

- It was brought up that General Orr has started a General's Mentorship Luncheon, and it was also today. Mr. Peters will contact Mr. Wynn to find out if the general is going to have his luncheon on the first Wednesday of every month. If the general wants to use that day, then we will need to change our date so that those who want to attend the general's luncheon will be able to.
(NOTE: If we have to change our date, remember the Corn Patch Restaurant is closed on Monday and Tuesday, so we would need to change to Thursdays, or find another restaurant for Tuesdays.)

STATUS: OPEN

10. OPEN FORUM:
